16th November 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

Y6 are learning about WW2 this half term. To complement and enhance their learning, we have booked a trip to Slapton Sands on Thursday 2nd December. The details are below.

Where	Slapton Sands
When	Thursday 2 nd December
Cost	£4 per child (to cover the cost of the coach – subsidised)
Times	Leaving school at 9:30am Returning to school at 3pm
Your child will need	Warm clothes- trousers, top and jumper A waterproof coat Walking boots or sturdy trainers (they may get muddy/sandy) A packed lunch (or school packed lunch to be ordered by 23 November 2021) Water in a reusable bottle (not a carton) A morning snack- fruit/veg is preferable

Whilst there, the children will learn about ‘Exercise Tiger’ – the rehearsals for the D-Day Landing in Normandy which took place at Slapton Sands. There will be the opportunity to visit the memorial there and go on a beach walk to enhance their understanding of the plans for D-Day.

We will risk assess the weather ahead of our trip, but it is likely that the trip will go ahead unless it is deemed unsafe.
